the team of Millers is not the same orgization which played in Kanasa City tice before this season. A fumble and a lif throw by Burke were their only errors sterday, and their work, generilly, was the quick, snappy order. The Blues, preover, could not find McNeely.
It looked like Kanasa City's game in the rat inning, when Frishee touched McNeely
or a single and Connaughton bringht him with a threesacker. With Connie on hird, however, and but one out, the Blues fere unable to score again, for Williams
cas retired on three strikes and Wilson hit to McNeely and died at first.

Jimmie Williams threw wide of first in the fourth inning, giving Burse life, and Andrews hit to left for a big. Wilmot touched a grounder to O'Hagas, who could have had the Minneapolis cattain a mile, but instead be threw to seend, and the bases were filled. Carey hit a siasher to center and Leicher landed afely in left.
Dixon knocked the ball to Villiams, who spolled the chance for a douile by waiting to touch Carey before he reached third.
McNeely singled into left feld and Davis
hit along the right field line or three bases, and came home behind the others when O'Hagan missed the ball of the throw-in.

This inning gave the visitos seven runs—a lead of six.

The Millers had about one their worst, and there was scarcely a feed of changing the pitchers at that stage of the proceedings, but Eagan made he appearance at the beginning of the fift inning. "Rip" sent Andrews, the first nan, to first with four balls, and Wilmot sivanced him with a beautiful sacrifice. Garey brought Andrews home with a leg single to right and went to second when the Blues tried to catch Andrews at the plate. Letcher's long hit to right garder sent in the Millers list score.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 12.-The baseball muddle took another turn to-day when William A. Kinnerk filed a motion to set aside the receivership and restore the club to Chris Von Der Ahe, trustee, under the second deed of trust. A day or two ago the Mississippi Valley Trust Company asked for a receiver on the ground that $29,000 worth of bonds were in default in both principal and interest, and that the bondholders wanted their money. Now Mr. Kinnerk, who comes in as a creditor, asks that Mr. Muckenfuss be removed and the order appointing him be vacated.

The New Yorks made the best showing of any of the Eastern clubs in the West. They played the Reds, Colonels and Browns and won a majority of games from each.

news came from Milwaukee that the Brewers had shut out the Indians.

"Kid" Cooper must have been in condition when he shut out the Saints yesterday. Cooper, it will be remembered, is the Kansas League youngster whom the Bluestouched up for lifteen hits in the opening game with St. Joe.

The Blues have a fashion of dropping the first game of each local series with the Millers to the visitors. The last time Minneapolis played here Kansas City lost the game, but on the following day defeated their guests by a score of 26 to 2. Will history repeat itself to-day?

The Blues have been on a strain for the last two weeks, and that they should give down after defeating four or five big teams was almost to be expected. After their lay-off yesterday, however, it is believed that they are now in condition to play in their old-time pennant-winning form.

Jimmie Williams played the old hide-the-ball gag on Letcher yesterday in good shape. Letcher made a triple in the eighth inning, and when the Minneapolis player led off from third, Williams, who had hid the ball, touched him out. Says Sporting News, editorially: Jimmie Manning is the most popular magnate in the Western League. Kansas City is the second choice in the other seven cities of that circuit. The Blues' owner is one of the whitest men in the business and the pennant is none too good for him and the city which his team represents.

In the East the opinion prevails that Williams, of Kansas City, will succeed Shindle at the third corner of the Brooklyn infield. It will be too bad if the lively youngster does not catch on with a stronger club, where he will have fast bail players to encourage and teach him, as his

"If there was anything needed to prove that the balls used in the league this year
are not up to the standard it is the record of runs made in league games," says Lowe,
of the Boston team. "Look the records over and you will notice that most of the runs are scored in the earlier innings. This is because the balls are then new and hard.
It doesn't take much hitting nowadays to make the ball soft and punky. After they are hit a few times they become so soft that few runs are made in the dnal innings.
It didn't use to be this way, when the balls were of the right kind. Then a team was just as liable to make a big rally in the tail end of the game as it was in the first part of the contest."

Says the Indianapolis correspondent of

Says the Indianapolis correspondent of Sporting News: The critical period in the race for the Western League championship has been reached. It is evident that the contest lies between Indianapolis and Kan-sas City, with the immediate chances in favor of the Blues. The Hoosiers are twenty points from the leaders, but the twenty points from the leaders, but the situation is not one to discourage the hopeful cranks. Kansas City is playing a fine game of ball and the sentiment among the Indianapolis enthusiasts is that if Bob Allen's men cannot capture the pennant, they hope the flag will go to the Cowboys. This feeling has been the result of the clean ball playing of the Kansas City team when it appeared on the Ohio street diamond.

COOPER DEFEATED IN STRAIGHT HEATS BY THE CHAMPION.

Race Was Run at Night-Riders Rode at a Snail's Pace-Bald Won Both Heats by Less Than a Foot.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Aug. 12.-The first night races of the national L. A. W. meet were held at Newby Oval to-night. Eddie "Cannon" Bald won the match race in straight heats. The race was unsatisfactory to the immense concourse of peoin straight heats. The race was unsatisfactory to the immense concourse of people, for in one heat, the second, snails could have gone over the lightning track faster. This mile was completed in 7:57 3-5. It was a "loaf," pure and simple, the men straining every nerve and every point in their jockeying for position. The sprints at the finish were magnificent, however, Bald's head work winning for him the long looked for event. Bald's win exaggerated the feeling between the two, especially that Cooper clalmed a foul in the second heat because after Bald forced him to take a lead he had stopped at a post in the amphitheater, Bald touched him and held to the same post. Referee Mott refused to allow the claim and awarded Bald the race. Had not Referee Mott forced them by threats of suspension the men might have made the race an all night affair. Cooper was beaten by Bald, the latter winning on his merits when they did race.

The first heat was scheduled for French style of racing, and this was followed. Cooper forced Bald to take the pace, and for a lap the speed was fair. Bald then rode to the top of the bank and Cooper trailed. They rode at a snail's pace for the next two laps and until within a furlong of the tape. Cooper then made a jump and Bald was immediately after him. It was a hair-raising finish, Baid crossing the tape first on the outside a foot in front of his opponent. Time, 3:58.

In the second heat Bald high the pole. Ed Aker was put in as pacemaker. The gun was fired for a start, but neither of the men moved.

anywhere. Cooper went to the top of the bank immediately, Bald following, and they both clung to the fence of the amphithater.

Cooper was first to hold the fence. Referce Mott gave him a moment to get away, after a wrangle, and the referce's bluff went. The men then rode slowly around the track, Bald trailing until a point was reached about five yards further on from that where Cooper had made his jump in the previous heat. Bald shot out like a flash and Cooper took up the chase on the instant. It was a marvelous sprint the two race kings made, and Bald's front wheel crossed the tape six inches in front of Cooper's. The time was 7:57-3-5.

The crowd hissed both riders, having expected fast time in the heat in which pace was given.

In a five mile amateur paced race Harry Gibson, of Cincinnati, defeated C. J. Wagner, of Dayton. It was a beautiful contest, Gibson finishing about seventy-five yards to the good. Time, 9:43-1-5.

Peabody and Llewellyn, the Chicago tandems, in an exhibition quarter mile unpaced. lowered the world's tandem record, 0:24-4-5 to 0:24-1-5. It was a great race.

The fifteen mile match race between John S. Johnson and "Plugger" Bill Martin saw an usrly spill, caused by one of Martin's triplet teams, in taking pace, cuttling straight down the bank, rather than obliquely. The quad team which was pacing Martin at the time crashed into the triplet gand machines and riders piled up in a fleap, Oldfield, the steersman of the quad was seriously, if not fatally, injured. The accident occurred in the first lap of the fifth mile. The men were riding furiously with prospects of making a record. Johnson was cut and broised, but gamely pulled himself together and rode on. Martin was also cut about the arms and hands and his wound on the knee, received on the first day of the met, was reopened and his ellow bruised and lacerated. He, too, mounted and took after Johnson.

The officials started the men at the point of the accident allowing the distance only that which was between them at the time. The gun

CHANGE IN FOOTBALL RULES.

Hereafter a Goal From Touchdown Will Count but One Point in Eastern Games.

Alexander Moffatt, of Princeton; Walter Camp, of Yale; R. D. Wrenn, of Harvard; John T. Bell, of Pennsylvania, and Paul Dashiel, of Annapolis, comprising the foot-ball rules committee of the Eastern uniball rules committee of the Eastern universities, have completed their labors and asked to be discharged.

While the report in detail has not been made public, it is known that the one radical change made is in the matter of scoring. Hereafter only one point will be allotted for a goal made from a touchdown, the object being to increase the value of a dropkick from the field, and develop a feature of the game which, up to this time, has been partially neglected.

Outside of this one change in the matter of scoring, all other changes are purely of an explanatory nature, consisting of footan explanatory nature, consisting of foot-notes and marginal reference in the rules. notes and marginal reference in the rules. It was argued that the rules were right in the main, but often misconstrued, and violated in the spirit, if not in the letter, of the law. By making marginal references, and outlining fully the exact nature of the rule, it is believed officials can better hold players to the rules prescribed. The committee considered at length the question of mass play, and many arguments were advanced for and against the present rule, but after careful thought ments were advanced for and against the present rule, but after careful thought and study it was decided not to change it, and what in the minds of many people was the main object of the meeting was not accomplished.

District Attorney Says He Will Not Allow Corbett and McCoy to Fight in Erie Coupty.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 12,-District Attorney Kenefick, in answer to questions by President Nugent, of the Hawthorne Club, said to-night that the proposed contest between McCoy and Corbett would be unlawful and that he did not intend to have it take place in Eric-county.

"I thoroughly understand the kind of contest that is proposed," he said, "and I regard it as a prize fight and not a sparring exhibition." exhibition."
It is said the Hawthorne Club people are considering recourse to an injunction to restrain the county authorities from stopping the fight.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 12.—Charles N. Wison, manager and secretary of the Hawthorne Athletic Club, said to-day that he would continue to make preparations for the Corbett-McCoy contest regardless of the letter read at the ministers' meeting yesterday, in which the sheriff declared his intention to stop the fight. Mr. Wilson said that he anuclpated just such a fuss and had secured the best legal advice in New York and this city, and in not one instance has the club violated a law and it does not intend to violate any. He says that the question has been aired in court and that no lawyer would be foolish enough to fight the case over again. The BALD WON MILE RACE only harm that can come to the club is that a few out of town people may be scared away. No effort will be made to evade the law. It is not necessary, Mr. Wilson says.

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 12.—Governor Black has not as yet received any application to interfere in the McCoy-Corbett fight, which is scheduled to take place in the vicinity of Buffalo next month. The governor would not take any action in the matter should an application be made because he would not care to anticipate that the local authorities would permit the laws to be violated.

ITS INFLUENCE FOR GOOD.

Alrendy the Manufacturers' Association Has Become a Source of Commercial Strength.

The "Manufacturers' Association, of Kansas City, U. S. A." is already beginning to give outward and visible signs of why it is on earth. At last night's meeting of the board of directors, held at the Warwick club, it developed that the efforts of the association have already about borne fruit in the bringing together of a Texas capitalist and a Kansas City manufacturing concern of considerable importance in such a way that the Texas gentleman will add more capital to the plant and it will be enabled to increase its force of workmen, enlarge its capacity, and make a larger output more economically and be able to meet Eastern competition better. This is a line of work the association has mapped out for itself. Not the giving of bonuses and the removal to Kansas City of mushroom manufacturing institutions, but the bringing together of capital desiring safe investment and manufacturing establishments of merit needing larger capital, to the mutual advantage of both parties. ing of the board of directors, held at the

There is every indication that the asso-ciation will be highly successful in this work. On the other hand, a number of letters on the other hand, a number of letters were read from capitalists desiring to invest in active manufacturing enterprises or in new ones which can be shown positively to be meritorious. One letter was from a man who stated that he represents a London syndicate which desires to invest heavily in Western manufacturing enterprises. It will be the pleasure of the association to bring these two classes of people together and all to the upbuilding and permanent advantage of Kansas City and her manufacturing institutions.

The meeting last night also instructed Secretary Winsborough to compile information for the purpose of publishing, as soon as possible, a year book of the association, including an alphabetical list of all the members and a classified list of all the members and a classified list of all the members and a classified list of all the trilory tributary to Kansas City and thus book distributed by the members in the territory tributary to Kansas City and thus bring before the people who might be possible purchasers the fact that all these various articles are manufactured here and that the association is seeking their business.

Mrs. Clark's home was in Bartholomew county, Ind., and her family claim that their family physician had given up her case as hopeless before she came to Kansas City. A Kansas City doctor made an examination of her case after her arrival in the city and gave it as his opinion that an operation to remove the cancer would probably prove fatal.

Then it was that the sick woman became a convert to Christian Science, and came a convert to Christian Science, and friends say that the last few months of her friends say that the last few months of her life were brightened by her new belief. The family of the deceased, of whom there are five sons and three daughters, all living in Kansas City, do not believe in the doctrine. The coroner was notified and will view the remains this morning. It is expected to hold the funeral from the family home, 2402 Holmes street, at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The burial will be at Union cemetery.

Fully Insured. A fire which started last night about 11 o'clock in the elevator of the Hurds Milling and Grain Company, at Eighteenth and Grand avenue, resulted in a damage of about $1,200 to the building and contents. about $1.200 to the building and contents. No satisfactory explanation of the origin of the fire was given. The point at which the blaze seemed to have started was on the second floor above, the engine room. As the mill is used in grinding only coarse chop and corn meal, the theory of spontaneous combustion does not seem tenable. When the firemen broke in the doors, six minutes after the aiarm sounded, the corn chutes and the adjacent woodwork from the second floor up was all ablaze. After the fire was out a partially burnt sack of shavings and pieces of sacks were found under the hopper of the cleaner in which the fire seemed to have started. The presence of theze incendiary suggesting articles was explained by Proprietor Hurds, however, when he arrived a few minutes later. Mr. Hurds values the building and contents, which was fully insured, at $5,500.

MUST SELECT OTHER ROUTES.

County Court Will Not Permit Rail-

ways to Injure Macadam on County Roads. It is probable that on Monday the county court will take up for consideration the application for street railway franchises which were recently made by the Jackson County Street Railway Company, which County Street Railway Company, which proposes to build lines to Independence and to Dodson. It is not likely that franchises will be granted unless the company selects different routes than those specified in the petitions filed. The objection to these is that the tracks would take upnearly all of the macadamized portions of the roads over which they would run, greatly interfering with wagon traffic. The court advised the applicant when the petition was presented to select more sultable routes. Yesterday, after a short session, during which only routine business was transacted, the court adjourned until Monday.
